Virginia Code Title 15.2, Chapter 21 authorizes local governments to operate public utilities.

The Danville City Council establishes utility rates, as authorized in City Code Chapter 2.

Code Chapter 2, Section 2-285 assigns to the Danville Utility Commission the responsibility for establishing such policies as non-consumption utility fees, utility extensions, service connection fees, and other general service policies not designated to the City Council, City Manager, or Assistant City Manager for Utilities. Policies and procedures pertaining to standards and services are maintained in separate documents.

City Code Chapter 38, Utility Services, governs provision of utility services by the Danville Utilities Department.

Utility rates and charges are subject to change. Current copies of rate schedules are maintained at the Danville Public Library, 511 Patton Street, Danville, Virginia, in the City Clerk's Office, 4th Floor, Danville Municipal Building, 427 Patton Street, and on the internet via <http://www.danvilleutilities.com>.

Services of the Danville Utilities Department shall be applied fairly and consistently without regard to the customer's race, color, creed, sex, national origin or marital status.

Definitions

All terms used herein are considered to have common public utility application. They are neither unique to the City of Danville, nor are they meant to be subjected to precise scientific definition.

Biological Oxygen Demand (BOD) – Biological (or biochemical) oxygen demand is a measure of how much oxygen in the water will be required to digest the organic material in wastewater. BOD is the standard test used in assessing sewage strength.

BOD5 -- The measure of decomposable organic matter in domestic or industrial wastewater as represented by the oxygen utilized over a period of five days at 20°C expressed in terms of weight and concentration (milligrams per liter) and as determined by the appropriate procedure in "Standard Methods".

City – The City of Danville, Virginia.

Consumption – The amount of service used over a given period of time as measured by a meter.

Commercial User – Any non-residential user not included within the definition of an "industrial user" which is connected to the city's sewer system.

Cubic Foot – The unit of water volume measured by a customer meter. One cubic foot equals approximately 7.5 gallons.

Consumption – The amount of service used over a given period of time as measured by a meter.

Customer – The individual, firm, or organization that purchases service at a specific location under a specific rate classification, contract, or rate schedule.

Customer Charge – The established fixed fee necessary to cover meter reading, billing, and other general service costs.

GPD – Gallons per day

Industrial User – Any source of indirect discharge that introduces pollutants into the city's wastewater collection and treatment system from any non-domestic source regulated under the Clean Water Act, state law or local ordinance.

Industrial Water – Water treated to meet industrial process requirements usually defined to be water treatment to meet turbidity of five (5) NTUs or less.

mg/l – Milligrams per liter is a measure often used when describing contaminants and BOD5 and suspended solids found in water and wastewater. A milligram is one-thousandth of a gram. A gram is equivalent to 1/28 ounce. A liter is slightly larger than a quart.

Month - Not a calendar month, but instead the interval between successive regular meter reading dates. This can range from 26 to 35 calendar days for Customers billed on monthly cycles and 56 to 65 calendar days for those billed on a bi-monthly basis.

Potable Water – Water that is safe and satisfactory for drinking and cooking

Sewage – Human increment and gray water (household showers, dishwashing operations, etc.)

Suspended Solids or Total Suspended Solids (TSS) – Solids that either float on the surface of or in suspension in, water, sewage, or other liquids; and which are largely removed by treatment filtering as determined by the appropriate procedure in "Standard Methods."

Turbidity – A condition in the water caused by the presence of suspended matter, resulting in the scattering and absorption of light. Suspended solids that impart visible haze or cloudiness to water and can be removed by treatment. An analytical quantity usually reported in nephelometric turbidity units, determined by measurements of light scattering.

Unit – A measure of water and/or wastewater usage equal to 100 cubic feet.

Utility – Refers to the City of Danville Utilities Department, or any division thereof.
